“ Please allow me the chance to express my condolences for the death of your loved one Martez. In times like these how good to know that we can turn to our loving heavenly father Jehovah, the God of all Comfort." He knows and understands the many pains we feel when we lose those that we love. Because of his great love he provided the means for our dead loved ones to live again. John3:16. Yes, God's great love paved the way for our loved ones to live again by means of the resurrection. All thanks to Jehovah and his son Jesus Christ whose death made all things possible! May your hearts be at peace and your minds at rest as we wait for the time when suffering, death and pain will be no more! Rev 21:3-4!

“ Remembering you from a young boy to a young man, growing up with my grandson, Robert. I know your mother's heart is heavy but she should remember her child's life has given many people a joy and warmth in their hearts that not all people can do. You will be missed and prayers to your mother and family.

“ Martez I don't know where to start. I have watched you grow from a little kid to a grown man. I have tears in my eyes as I write this because I could remember the days when you would be outside playing basketball early in the morning and I would get up and see it was you and just watch you play because you was just doing what you loved doing. You called me mama #2 and I promise you your mama #2 misses you. Oh and you told me that you would bring lil tez to see me so I could hold him and guess what I did that today! I held him and just admired him. Thank you for leaving us such a precious gift your baby boy. I love you son and you will truly be missed. I'm going to miss your smile and your big hugs you gave me every time you saw me. I know I'm all over the place because I have so many memories of you I can just go on and on! Until we meet again son I love and I will make sure your mom is ok you know I forever got her! Just look over us
