

Martha Lee Prueitt

February 19, 1923 - March 5, 2019

Obituary

Martha began life in Greensboro, Georgia. She was the oldest of four children born to Annie Lou Rowland. Her education was performed in the Greene County School System. Preceding her in death was her twin sister, Mary Lou Lawson of Reidsville, GA, two brothers, Reverend Bill (William) Rowland of Albany NY and Henry (Uncle Buddy) Rowland of KCMO. Martha was married three times. All husbands preceded her in death, Wallace Shelton, Cleveland Brown and Question Prueitt. Martha accepted Christ and was Baptized at an early age. She began her spiritual walk at Flat Rock Baptist Church in Greensboro, GA. Her entire life was devoted to Christ and Family. The Family migrated to Kansas City, Missouri in 1947, seeking a different life than the one afforded them in a segregated south. She continued her spiritual ways and was a member of several churches, looking for a special church to call home. She finally decided to make Swope Parkway United Christian Church her church home. She said it was there that she finally felt complete. She never wavered. Martha was an expert cook. She specialized in Italian Cuisine. She was employed by several family owned Italian Restaurants in the Kansas City Area until she retired in 1988. Martha loved her family and was affectionately called Granny Prueitt. She leaves to cherish her memory three children, Marie Stovall, Martha Lou Gordon and Cleveland H. Brown, Sr. (Carol), all of Kansas City. She also leaves seventeen grandchildren; fifty great-grandchildren; ninety-one great-great grandchildren, and an uncountable number of other relatives and friends. Martha's suffering is over now. She is in a better place. Do not grieve, let the joy of the Lord be your strength. SHE HAS GONE TO LIVE WITH GOD!

FUNERAL SERVICE TUESDAY, MARCH 12, 2019, 12:00 P.M. Swope Parkway United Christian Center, 6140 Swope Parkway, KCMO 64131. Visitation: 10:00 A.M. Interment: Forest Hill Cemetery.

“ I am so sorry to learn about the death of your loved one Martha. I know that this is a difficult time for you but rest assured our loved ones who have died are only sleeping. The bible assures us that one day we will see them again by means of the resurrection. John5:28-29 Can you imagine the joy that will fill our hearts at that time? Yes, our heavenly father assures us that soon all suffering, pain and death will be no more. Rev21:3-4 What a wonderful time that will be! Do not let your hearts be troubled. Believe in the promises of God and find inner peace of mind and heart.

“ Expressing my condolence to the family for the loss of your precious loved one. Please find hope and comfort in God's wonderful promise of a resurrection of those who have passed away to be fulfilled by his son Jesus Christ. Then God's promise of no more sickness, sorrow, pain or death will come to be. What a wonderful time to look forward to! May you have peace in your hearts as we all await this time together. Acts 24:15; John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:3-5.
