

Marvlene (Adams) Williams

Obituary

Marvlene Adams-Williams was born August 5, 1953 in Greenwood, Mississippi to Freddie Adams Sr. and Alyce V. Adams. She accepted Christ at an early age and was a dedicated member of Swope Parkway Church of Christ. She attended Central High School and graduated in the year of 1971. From that point, Marvlene attended nursing school and became a LPN (License Practical Nurse) for over 30 years which included hospitals such as: St. Mary's, Menorah Medical Center, and Baptist Medical Center. Nursing was her gift, she enjoyed taking care of people that were sick. She was preceded in death by father, Freddie Adams S., mother, Alyce V. Adams, brother, Freddie Adams Jr., and brother, Quince L. Adams. She is survived by her spouse, Ralph Williams; aunt Roberta Featherson sister; Vivian E. Jackson; daughter Essence M. Emery; son-in-law; Robert E. Emery; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. "We love you and will miss you tremendously."
