Obituary

Mrs. Anderson was born in Hope Arkansas and lived there as a child. She lived for most of her life in Kansas City where she raised her family and worked to support them. She was a small woman who had a tremendous spirit. Known as “Little Momma” to the many who loved her, she took delight in gathering all for Sunday dinners and holidays at her home. She was the matriarch of the family and all of the family spent many joyful days eating at Lil Mommas’ house. She delighted in shopping and spending time with her daughters Myrtle Hall and Debra Robinson. Her only son Brian Robinson, who she always referred to as “my boy” was her joy. She moved to Somerset NJ in 2008 where she resided with her daughter Rev. Sharon Culley and her husband Rev. Tom Culley. She enjoyed meeting new people and the different experiences in central NJ, especially those at Mount Pleasant Baptist Church in Edison, where her son in-law Tom is pastor. There she became one of three ninety-year-old ladies who became known as “the girls”. She was predeceased by her first husband Leroy Robinson Jr. in 1961 and her second husband Ernest Anderson Jr. in 2000. She was also predeceased by her daughter Myrtle Hall and her siblings William Harris, Christine Jenkins, Ozzie Belle Austin, Roberta Harris, and Willa Belle Cooke.
