“ Sending my condolences to the family. I am Marcia's granddaughter and Ms Maxine has been around since I was born. I always considered her an Aunt she was my chicken and I was her hen. I am so grateful that I was able to see you when I was home last and for our conversations after that. This loss is so big for me but I am okay because you are not hurting any more. You made a great impact on my life and I appreciate all that you poured into me. I love you. ... Rest in Heaven ❤️

“ Hey Max, It would have been time for one of our weekly calls. I know you said you didn't want to tell me anything bad, now I guess you won't have too. You choose the journey you took to leave, still in my prayers.

“ The Amos Bradford descendants discovered Cousin Maxine when we were older. We were excited to get to know her and she also spent some time around our father, Amos (Bradford) Muhammad. We will miss her. May the ancestors welcome her with much drumming, singing and dancing, and may she continue to watch over the family from her position of eternity. Duane Bradford (Baye Kesbamera)

“ My Dear sweet sister, my heart is broken 💔 because I waited too late. Richard and I had just mapped out a plan to come visit. Please know I will be a help in any way I can to Rodney. I will always treasure our memories of the times spent together in KC. Thanking God for the peace you have now. 💕

“Gone to soon!!! Bettye, Sheila, I, were all together with you one last time this summer. We got to laugh, eat, and reflect on past times as we enjoyed each other's company. Never would have thought that would be the last time. Memories you left will remain a lifetime and help us as we cross this road. Thanks for being you.
