

Mr. Monsuru Peleowo

March 10, 1972 - January 22, 2026

Monsuru Peleowo was born on March 10, 1972, in Lagos, Nigeria to Yusuf and Ayisat Peleowo. After high school, Monsuru graduated from Community College Ilorin Kwara. While in Lagos, he worked as a salesman for his father's business and had a printing apprenticeship. He was in a relationship with Patience and they had a son, Nosirudeen in 1999.

He left home and resided in several countries where he worked various other jobs. While living in South Africa, he was briefly married to Daisy and they had a daughter, Rasheedat in 2001. While living in Japan in 2003, Monsuru married Cameron Isom in Zama, Kanagawa. Cameron returned to her home in Kansas City, Kansas, and he was able to join her in 2005. They were married for 22 years and had two children. Ayoka, born in 2004, and Desmond in 2006. He moved his two children from Africa as soon as he could. He also had a son, Rasheed, with Iyayi in Brooklyn, New York in 2008.

Monsuru passed away on January 22, 2026, at his home in Edwardsville, Kansas. He was preceded in death by his father, Yusuf, and some half-siblings from his father's three other wives.

Monsuru is survived by his wife, Cameron, his children Nosirudeen, Rasheedat, Ayoka, Desmond, and Rasheed, as well as his siblings from his parents; Fausat, Idayat, Jamiu, Fatima, Najeem, Medina, Akeem, and Latifah and a host of nieces and nephews.
