

Ms. Myra Northern

April 5, 1938 - October 7, 2023

Myra was the only child born to Mozelle and H.F. Pinchback, April 5, 1938, in Sharp, Texas. The family relocated to San Antonio, Texas where she was reared.

During the Spring of 1953, while working at Fort Sam Houston Air Force Base, Myra met the love of her life ... James M. Northern. They were married in August of the same year. Myra and James relocated to Kansas City, Kansas in 1956 and later to Kansas City, Missouri, where they raised four daughters: Vanessa Gayle, Marsha Lynn, Gina De'Andra and June Maria.

Shortly after relocating to Kansas City, Missouri, Myra settled on Vocational Training. Graduating from Aileen Jefferson School of Cosmetology, then Floral Design. She also worked as a Home Health Care Aide in her latter years.

She had an active social life in her early years from becoming PTA President, Assistant Girl Scout Leader, weekly Bowling League, Garden Club, to taking her children to their various dance, music, sewing and sports activities.

Myra enjoyed Family Life. The weekly Family Get Together, playing Poke no and Bid Whist, Holiday Dinners, Graduations, Birthday and Wedding celebrations as well as being a season ticket holder to the K C Athletics and Chiefs games. She was in attendance to the many events her children were in and didn't miss many of her Grandchildren or Great-Grandchildren.

Myra leaves to mourn her daughters: Vanessa G. Cunningham (Kenneth) Grandview, MO Marsha L. Turner Odenton, MD, Gina D. Northern Kansas City, MO June M. Northern Lee's Summit, MO seven grandchildren: Fallon Cunningham, Ashley Cunningham, Erica (Jonathan) Davis, Eric Turner, Erin Turner, Carl Martin Jr, Quincy Dickerson and seven Great-Grandchildren: Tayana, Ariyah and Gianna Brown, Joy, Angel and Jonathan Jr. Davis and Ian Turner. "A Mother holds her children's hands for a while, their hearts forever"
