

Myrtle A. Conaway

April 29, 1938 - January 14, 2021

Obituary

The sunrise of Myrtle Annette Conaway was April 29, 1938, in Higginsville, Missouri. The oldest of nine siblings of William Martin Conaway, Jr. and Corrine Johnson. Myrtle passed on January 14, 2021.

Myrtle grew up in Higginsville and attended Douglass High School, Lexington Missouri, and Manuel High School, Kansas City, Missouri.

Myrtle moved to Kansas City in 1955. In the 1960's she went to Jefferson Cosmetology School and became a licensed beautician. She worked at different beauty salons, worked a number of years at Nevel Luggage, and a number of years at Knit Rite where she retired.

Myrtle was a loving mother that gave birth to five children that she raised by herself and grandmother of seventeen grandchildren and thirty-two great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

Myrtle was preceded in death by a brother, John, sisters, Linda, Gracie and Judith, son, David Conaway and three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Myrtle leaves to cherish her memories: four daughters, Rita Joy Conaway of Kansas City, Missouri, Rosalind Renee Conaway of Kansas City, Missouri, Sondra Jolene Herron of Kansas City, Missouri and Annette Corrine Conaway of Kansas City, Missouri; sisters, Lillian Jackson of Kansas City, Missouri, Faye Conaway of Kansas City, Missouri, June Copeland of Kansas City, Missouri; brothers, Keith Conaway of Florescent, Missouri, Gregory Conaway of Kansas City, Missouri; seventeen grandchildren; thirty-two great-grandchildren and one great great-grandchild; eleven nephews; five nieces; uncle, Reverend Wibur Conaway; aunt, Cleo Jane Polland and a host of cousins, family, and friends.

To send flowers to the family or plant a tree in memory of Myrtle A. Conaway, please visit our floral store.

Read More