“ To the Carter Family We are sorry to hear about the passing of Naomi Carter. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family and friends. Yes this is the time to be on the receiving end of getting words of comfort to encourage us during this hour of great sadness. I know that Naomi found comfort in reading the scriptures. I wonder how many times did she come to this text that is recorded at John 5:28-29? In short God is making a promise with His earthly family. The text is tied in with the ransom sacrifice of His son who died for us. (John 3:16) So God states that He would soon call to those in the grave, and that our departed loved ones would hear His voice and stand up in life again. (John 5:28-29) Yes God is giving us His personal guarantee that Naomi, and billions of others will have their lives restored back to them. Can you envision this arrangement taking place? Do you see yourself being reunited back with not only Naomi, but other family members and friends who have died? Well this is what the True God is promising us. Oh what a grand time period this will prove to be. Why even the aging process of our ailing bodies will become young again. (Job 33:25) Would you not agree that these are comforting words to hear and read about. During Naomi's lifetime she enjoyed doing many things. Yes she developed a special bond with many people. With her death all we have left is fond memories of her. In all fairness, we rather have the real Naomi back among the living. This is what God wants for us also. So to help all to have strong faith in this arrangement about God restoring the lives of our loved ones, God has preserved nine accounts in the Bible that speak about this future blessing. Here is just one of the recorded accounts found at Acts 9:36-42. I would like to take this time to encourage all to see how these verses apply to Naomi, and billions of others who await this resurrection blessing from God. So those who have died have their lives really put on hold or on pause for a brief moment. So however they will stand up in life again. We know this because we have God's personal promise. Yes when God makes a promise, it becomes reality. For God does not lie.

“ Please allow me the chance to express my deepest condolences for the loss of your most precious loved one Naomi. I pray that the wonderful memories of special times shared will be a source of comfort for you and that you will know how much others share and care about your loss. How good to know that our loved ones are only sleeping and that soon we will see them again by means of the resurrection. John5:28-29 Do not let your hearts be troubled. Believe in the promises of our loving heavenly father Jehovah. All things were made possible by the death of his dear son, Jesus Christ. Once again I am sorry for your loss and pray that your heart may find inner peace in this most difficult time.
