

Oralee Meadows

October 1, 1935 - February 23, 2018

Obituary

Oralee Meadows passed away on February 23, 2018, at Providence Place in Kansas City, Kansas.

She was born on October 1, 1935, in Grady, Arkansas to Savoy and Lucy (Green) Barnett.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband and one sister.

Oralee grew up in Kansas City, Kansas where she attended the public schools and graduated from Sumner High School. She worked and retired as a Bus Driver with the Transportation Authority for many years.

She was a Church Mother at Agape New Beginnings Church.

Oralee was married to Johnny Carr. She enjoyed shopping and spending time with her family.

Oralee Meadows leaves to cherish her memories, her daughter, Deborah Johnson of Denver, Colorado; three sisters: Nadine Jarrett of Shawnee, Kansas, Hazel Dean, and Yolanda Straws both of Kansas City, Missouri; one brother, Odis Barnett of Kansas City, Kansas; one grand- daughter, Kierra; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Viewing for Oralee Meadows will be held Friday, March 2, from 11:00 a.m. until 12:00 p.m. at the Lawrence A. Jones and Sons, Kansas City, Kansas Chapel, 2065 N. 5th Street, Kansas City, Kansas.

Private Disposition.

To send flowers
to the family or plant a tree
in memory of Oralee Meadows, please visit our floral store.

Read More

Tribute Wall

BW

“ To the family of Mother Meadows: On behalf of the Evangelist Temple Diocese, please accept our prayers of intercession and heartfelt sympathy in the loss of your loved one. While we extend compassion to all, it is especially my desire to convey concern to National Supv. Hazel Dean in the passing of your Sister. Please know that the entirety of the Executive Staff of the Diocese will petition God for you strength to bear this loss, and your inner healing after the loss. Sorrowfully Submitted, The Most Rev. C. Willis, Presiding Bishop/Chief Apostle

---

Bishop Willis - March 02, 2018 at 07:54 PM