“ To the Corrioso We take this time to express our personal condolences to the family of Pamela Corrioso. Our deepest thoughts and prayers go out to the family and friends during this time of great sadness. Yes once again death has taken away another person who will be deeply loved and miss. And once again we continue to remind people everyone that our departed love ones are not left in a helpless situation. From the pages of the Bible, God takes the time to provide this loving promise for all to read and draw comfort from. The promise is recorded at John 5:28-29. There the promise states that God would soon cause a calling to go out to those in the grave. That our departed love ones would hear His voice and stand up in life again. From the reading of these verses, God is giving us His personal guarantee that Pamela, and a great host of others will have their lives restored back to them Yes God is the source of life for all living persons. (Psalm 36:9) Even if a person dies, God has the powers to restore life back to them, and to reunite them back with their family members and friends. Really the future is bright for God's human family. There are many more loving blessing that God also wants us to be made aware of. Today all can continue to draw further comfort from God by reading all accounts in the Bible that speaks about the resurrection blessing from God. There are nine accounts in the Bible that speaks about this loving arrangement from God. Here is just one such example that is recorded at Acts 9:36-42. I truly hope that all will get a chance to see how these verses apply to Pamela as she await her personal awakening from the deep sleep of death. Until then, may all please keep these promises o f God near your hearts at all times. Remember that when God makes a promise, it becomes a reality.. For it is impossible for God to lie.
