“ Kim and I met briefly, as a customer of the company she worked for - we had the privileged to work with her consistently for training, and tutorials. She was hilarious, and was always smiling and making sure we were on task in our trainings. I'll never forget her 'Mud, Tea, Water' where she'd always ask us which one we preferred mid-session. We'd break and talk about Coffee not being on a list as I'm a big coffee drinker, and I cannot confess how saddened I am to hear about her passing. Thoughts, and Prayers are going out from my family to hers - and I pray for peace for her loved ones.
