“ Dad, I see a lot of you in me. You are always fixing things, putting things together, and figuring out how things work. You always think positively and never let things get you down, Dad. I'm so thankful for the memories we share; we always talk about old times we had, especially about old cars and trucks you work on. Dad, I have watched you smile at me many times, letting me know I am on the right track. Dad, I will always carry the wisdom you taught me to whoever wants to listen.
