“ *To the family of Regina A. Davis Brown: I am so sorry for your loss. Regina was-is a beautiful person and friend. We meet in the 7th grade in Morrilton, Ar and stayed in touch through the years. Always smiling, always sweet, and kind. I will truly miss her sweet smile and her friendship that we shared. Our hearts our broken but we know she is at rest from this world but at peace in her Heavenly Home with her mother. I hope these verses will comfort you during this time: John 11:25-26 “Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live. And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.” (KJV) John 14:1-3 “Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father’s house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.” (KJV) Psalm 30:5b “weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning.” (KJV) Matthew 5:4 “Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.” (KJV)

“ Richard my Brother I am saddened at this news. I am so glad to have seen Regina the day I picked up the Proclamation a few weeks ago. This was the last time I saw her. She was a beautiful soft spoken and a wonderful person whom I will miss. In the coming days God's grace will be with you and it will be sufficient for you. Below is a scripture to hold close to your heart in coming days, weeks, months, and years. God bless, comfort, and sustain you. Romans 8:35-39 (NIV) 35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? 36 As it is written: "For your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered." 37 No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. 38 For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, 39 neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
