

Mr. Rickie Scott

July 25, 1954 - December 30, 2023

Rickie Ronell Scott was a man with such an impactful presence. It's a challenge to depict who he was with words alone, but today, we must try.

Rickie accepted Christ at a young age. He was born July 25, 1954, in Fulton, Missouri, to the union of John and Lillie Mae Scott.

He attended Wendell Phillips Elementary and Lincoln High School. He is preceded in death by both parents, his sister Emma Preston, and his daughter Rekita Scott.

Affectionately known as Slick Rick, Rickie began his career path working with the City of Kansas City Public Works Department in the year of 1971 and retired in June of 2016, where he made lifelong friendships.

Rickie married his first wife Jeanette Jones early on in life and later remarried Rosaland Scott in April of 1992 and they shared their love up until the day he departed from us. He was an amazing father figure to many and being a Dad was one of his proudest roles in life; Slick Rick did not play when it came to any of his Children.

He leaves to mourn; His wife Rosaland Scott, his sisters; Maxine Bushnell, Glenda Smith (John Smith), and Marlo Scott, and his children, Shirlene Parker (Tracy Parker), Tawana Anderson (Charles Anderson), Hikeime Scott, Gregland Phillips, Tameka Wright, Willie Wright Jr, Jerrick Scott, Sharolyn Scott, Raphael Scott, Tikia Scott, Precious Scott, Crystal Scott and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

He was a man of few words, but his actions showcased his integrity.

Rickie was a traveler; He loved hitting the road in his R.V. and taking rides on his Harley Davidson. He was a lover, a fixer, and a leader. A multi-dimensional being. His presence will truly be missed
