Robert LeOtis Holder was the seventh child born June 6, 1932, in LaGrange, Missouri to Georgia and William Holder. He was preceded in death by his wife, Jerlean Alexander Holder, both parents, six brothers and two sisters. He received his early education in the public schools of LaGrange, Missouri and attended Douglas High School in Hannibal, Missouri. He then entered the Army and was in the Korean War before moving to Kansas City, Missouri.

In 1955, he began a career as a Mail Handler with the United States Postal Service. A few years later, Robert met Jerlean Alexander and they married in 1960. To this union three children were born, Richard, Angela, and Scott.
