“ To the Wooton Family We are truly sorry to hear about the recent passing of Robert Wooton. Our deepest thoughts and prayers go out to the entire family during this time of great sadness. No there is never a welcomed time to hear about the passing of anyone. The announcement of the dying of anyone only serves as a reminder of how far the human family has fallen from God original purpose. Yes we were created to live forever, not a few years. How sad it is for all, that by one man's selfish act, the entire human family have been sold into sin and death. However God has not turned His back upon us. HE takes the time to provide words of comfort for all to read about. (2 Corinthians 1:3-4) On this day He provides these words to the Wooton family and friends. Yes He is well aware of what you are dealing with. So in His great love for His earthly family, He leave these encouraging words for all to read. Yes it is this good news that God wants all to know about. The good news come in the form of a promise. This promise is recorded for all to read. It is recorded at John 5:28-29. There God tells us that he would use His great powers to restore life back to those who have died. From these verses, God is giving us His personal guarantee that Robert, and a great host of others will have their lives restored back to them. That Robert would be reunited back with His many family members and friends who love and miss His dearly. Would you not agree that this truly is a wonderful promise for all to read about. Yes we understand that many would have a lack of faith in this promise. So to help all to develop strong faith in this future blessing, God has taken the time to preserve nine accounts in the Bible that speaks about the resurrection blessing from God. Here is just one such example that is recorded at John 11:32-44. I hope that the family and friends will get a chance to see how these verses apply to Robert, and to others who await their awakening from the deep sleep of death. So in closing we say please keep this promise of God near your hearts at all times. Remember that when God makes a promise, it becomes reality. For it is impossible for God to lie. (Titus 1:2)
