On June 23, 1963, she met the love of her life (Earnest L. Fisher, Sr.) at a sweet shop while visiting one of her sisters in Amite, Louisiana. They later married on March 5, 1966 in the home of Earnest's grandmother. To this union, they have 4 children (Darlene, Amanda, Earnest Jr, and Myron).

Her husband moved her and their two daughters to Kansas City, Missouri in July of 1967 for better job opportunities. The family grew with the addition of their two sons. She received her license as Evangelist Missionary in 1976 (two years after her husband was an Ordained Elder).
