“ My letter to Ronnie, Hello Gray, As I come here today to express my deepest condolences I can't explain how heavy my heart is and how hard it is for me to grasp this. I would have never imagined this. There is so much I wanted and needed to say. I can't put everything into words right now. I do want to let you know that we all love you and your are already truly missed. I could flood this page with so much but it won't take away the hurt or pain. I loved you from the first day we met and I still love you the same today. You were amazing and a true blessing to my life while here on earth. Please watch over me as you take your rightful place in heaven with the rest of the angels. Your family and friends will take good care of your mother as we all know that was your pride and joy. You no longer have to worry and now you can't rest. I love you so much I can't say it enough. This is my final farewell until we meet again. I love you always&forever. Love ~DirttieGurl~ a.k.a. “ To my friend Ms. Carrie, this is the time you trust in your faith, family & friends. I am now and will always be sending you my prayers (as you did for me). Hold onto the memories of your beloved son as he would want you to and don't forget to laugh when you think his smile. To the family please accept my deepest condolences at this time of great anguish. Love you Carrie
