“ My beautiful and precious niece, you will always hold a special place in my heart ❤️. It was because of you I'm married to my wonderful husband of 41 years. I will miss the joy and laughter we shared over the years. Also, the candid questions you asked when trying to make an important life decision. Rest now in the Lord's arms. Auntie Charlotte

“ Ernestine, Lilbert, Solomon, Elizabeth and family, Thoughts of peace during your time of sorrow Tonight when you look up, don't think of the stars as stars. Think of them as porch lights, welcoming your loved one safely home. Tonight when you look up

“ Mrs. Webb, which is how I knew this lovely woman, was a devoted mother and sweet person. She regularly brought Solomon and Elizabeth to the Olathe Indian Creek Library, and we enjoyed their presence among us. I was heartbroken to learn that Mrs. Webb had passed away at such a young age. May she rest in peace and rise in glory.

“ Words cannot begin to express the grief that my heart feels in the passing of my beloved lil sister, Rostine. We shared several things in common as well as similar names. We found it quite humorous & peculiar just how much we were alike in various areas of our lives. I will always remember our last prayer together & I Thank GOD for our relationship & many conversations. GODS' Word was shared with her daily & she was always appreciative & receptive as we shared. We did not have conversations without talking about the LORD. Through adversity she held on the best that she knew how to her Hope & Faith In her LORD And SAVIOR, JESUS CHRIST. She was also an encourager to me & my husband in ministry. Rostine loved THE LORD & had a strong desire for change. She wanted to see more ministry done in our Churches & longed to see the people of GOD reach their highest potential, especially our youth. She displayed a sweet and caring spirit & always sought the best for Solomon & Lizzie. She was selfLAST when it came to them. No matter the cost, she wanted the best for them educationally & otherwise. She taught them well & was proud of their accomplishments. My prayer & plea are for them to honor GOD & Rostine's memory/legacy by being there for each other & doing well. Also, Look to the LORD and his strength; seek His face always. Psalm 105:4Family, please find comfort in knowing that she is with our LORD & no longer suffering with the weight & struggles of this life. May you all rest in the arms of JESUS now & in the days to come . The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit. Psalm 34:18 Lovingly Submitted, Twin Big Sis, Ernestine
