“ To the Briggs Family On behalf of my family, we take this time to express our personal condolences to the family of Ruby Briggs. Our deepest thoughts and prayers go out to the entire family during this time of great sadness. On this day, we join you in grieving over the loss of your loved one. Really it is the proper things to do seeing that we are all really related. And as the scripture's states, from one man we receive the stain of death. (Roman 5:12) Today all can be truly thankful that God will not continue to allow stain of death to continue to have the mastery over us. This is truly good news for all to hear and to read about. (Matthew 24:14) The Good news comes in knowing that God would soon bring an end to all sicknesses and death. (Revelation 21:3-4) God has given us His personal promise that He would soon cause a calling to go forth to those in the grave to stand up in life again. This promise is recorded at John 5:28-29. Yes, we have much to look to. So, can you see yourself being reunited back with Ruby, and a great host of others who have fallen asleep in death. Also, we can build up our faith in this promised arrangement by reading all nine accounts in the Bible that speaks about this grand blessing that is ever so close at hand. Here is just one such example that will help to strengthen your faith in this promised resurrection from God. Here is just one such example that is recorded at Acts 9:36-42. I hope that all will get a chance to see how these verses apply to Ruby, and a great host of others in a very special way. In closing we encourage all to please keep this promise of God close to your hearts at all times. Remember that when God makes a promise, it becomes reality. For it is impossible for God to lie. (Titus 1:2)
