“ From the day I meet you it was all fun and laughs. The late nights and early mornings we shared outside of the salon will always be cherished. You used to call me Richie Rich. Money was no issue when we did anything. I will always cherish the memories we had and they slaying of my hairdos. I love you and rest well. You are the hardest fighter for life I know. Strong and Brave. Prayers for your family. You are in a better place. Ill see you on the other side.
Forever my Russi Bussy
