“ To the Bey Family We take this brief moment to express our personal condolences to the family of Ruthie Bey. Our thoughts and prayers go out to the family and friends during this time of great sadness. Indeed, this is a time period when strong words of love and comfort will be needed by all. I know that the family and friends will be there for you. But may we also be mindful that God Himself will be there for us. The scriptures clearly remind us that God is a God of tender mercy and comfort. (2 Corinthians 1:3-4) Yes, He know what we are dealing with, and has given us His personal promise that He would be there for us doing this stressful time period. He has also given us His promise that He would soon remove from the earth all things that causes pain and suffering. (Revelation 21:3-4) One such thing that causes pain is losing anyone in death. However, God has also given us His promise that He would also restore life back to those who have fallen asleep in death. This wonderful promise is recorded at John 5:28-29. As the text states, that God would cause a calling to take place, and that our departed loved ones would respond to that calling by standing up in life again. Just imagine this wonderful arrangement being extended to person like Ruthie, and to many others who await their personal awaiting from death. God understands that many will manifest a lack of faith in this future promise, after all they have been seeing their loved ones die right before their eyes. So, to help all to develop strong faith in this future blessing, God has taken the time to preserve nine accounts in the Bible that speaks about the resurrection blessing soon to take place earth wide. Here is just one such example that is recorded at Acts 9:36-42. I hope that all will get a chance to see how these verses apply to Ruthie, and to a great host of others in a very special way. So, may all please keep this promise of God near your hearts at all times. Remember that when God makes a promise, it becomes reality. For it is impossible for God to lie. (Titus 1:2)
