January 4, 1924 - February 10, 2021

Obituary

Mrs. Sedonia Delores Lacy was born January 4, 1924 in Bayou current, Louisiana to Mary Jane Asley-Rosette and John Rosette; both preceded her in death.

Sedonia grew up in Melville, Louisiana and New Orleans, Louisiana. Sedonia later moved to Kansas City, Missouri where she married Arthur Vivian. To this union three sons were born, James Vivian, Charles Edward Vivian and William Vivian. After Arthur passed away in 1969, she later met and married James Lacy. To this union she inherited several adult children, Loretta Black (Robert), Michael Lacy, Brian (deceased), Sondra Kay Jones, Deneece Lacy and Lorrie Lacy (deceased).

Sedonia received her education in Melville, Louisiana and Penn Valley Community College in Kansas City, Missouri.

Sedonia professed her faith in Christ at the age of thirteen at Mt. Piquish Baptist Church. She was baptized by Isaac Minor in Mersington, Louisiana in 1937.

Sedonia lived an active and vibrant life. She was a piano student of Miss Gladys Wallace, studied voice under Mrs. Joyce Booker. She loved singing in the Senior Choir for many years. She also directed the church choir. She was a member of St. Stephen Baptist Church for over seventy years. She taught Sunday School, Women's Bible Class for over fifty years, New Members Class, Open Door Circle and teacher for Union District Wives Council. She was also active with the Washington Wheatley Neighborhood Block Club, Missouri Nurse Association, Palestine Senior Citizen Center and its Bible Study group.

Sedonia was employed as a nurse for over thirty-nine years. She worked at Charity Hospital, New Orleans, Louisiana, Wheatley Hospital, Queen of the World Hospital and Menorah Hospital retiring in 1976. After retirement she worked for Dr. Nelson Johnson another four years.

Sedonia was preceded in death by Brian and Lorrie Lacy.

Sedonia is survived by her husband, James Lacy; sons, James Vivian of Kansas City, Missouri, Charles Vivian of Oxnard, California, William Vivian of Kansas City, Missouri; inherited adult children, Michael Lacy, Loretta Black (Robert), Sandra Kay Jones, Deneece Lacy; one daughter-in-law, Sally Vivian; special niece, Marie Oakman (Alfred, deceased); a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren and great great grandchildren.

“ Mother Lacy was treasured by me for her ever loving sweetness and always welcoming smile. She was one of the best cooks in this city and her prized Louisiana Gumbo will always be number one in my life. People say you should become sweeter as you grow older. Mother Lacy is the personification of that wisdom in the way she lived and in the children she raised who are like family to me. Rest in Peace, I'll see you again.

“ Sister Sedonia Lacy was my teacher, my mentor, and most importantly, my encourager in my walk with Christ. She was a special and spiritually gifted Bible teacher at St. Stephen Baptist Church. She lived the God centered life that she so faithfully taught about, loving God and unconditionally loving others. Even in her late nineties, she never wavered from her calling to teach, to serve and to magnify Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior. The warmth of Sister Lacy’s love of Christ was an inspiration to everyone whose path crossed hers, including my own. May God’s Holy presence be with her family every moment of this difficult journey.

“ Sister Lacy exemplified a life well lived. She. Served continuously in the teaching ministry of her home church St Stephen Baptist as well as Union District Senior Women’s Missionary Union. She is loved and respected by many, including me. May the Lord bless and keep and give you peace. Her living was not in vain. 🙏
