“ To the Hall Family: I had the pleasure of working with Sheri at her most recent job. I really enjoyed working with her. We had some wonderful chats. I'm amazed that Sheri maintained a joyful attitude during her illness. We could all learn a lot from her, especially me. May she Rest in Eternal Peace in heaven with God! My thoughts and prayers are with you all during this time. Tom Okoneski

“ To the Hall Family: We take this time to express our personal condolences to the family of Sherion R Hall. Our deepest thoughts and prayers go out to the entire family during this hour of great sadness. May all grieving hearts continue to draw true comfort from this loving promise from God where He shares the Good News about the resurrection of life for those who have fallen asleep in death. This comforting promise is recorded at John 5:28-29. As the verse states, God would cause a calling to go forth to those in the grave to stand up in life again. Just imagine what this time period would be like, as we witness with our eyes our departed loved ones standing up in life again. Indeed, the sound of joy and laughter will fill the entire earth. This future blessing will certainly take place. Until this arrangement begins to happen, it would be good for all to develop strong faith in this future blessing from God. There are nine accounts in the Bible that speak about this promised arrangement from God. Here is just one such blessing that is recorded at Acts 9:36-42. I truly hope that all will get a chance to see how these verses apply to Sherion, and a great host of others who await their personal awakening from the deep sleep of death. So, may all please keep this promise of God near your hearts at all times. Remember that when God makes a promise, it becomes reality. For it is impossible for God to lie. (Titus 1:2)
