“ To the Adams Family On behalf of my family, I would like to take this time to express my personal condolences to the family of Sheryl M Adams. Our thoughts and prayers go out to the family and friends during this time of great sadness. Today we share your pain. There is not one person that has not lost someone to our enemy death.(1 Corinthians 15:26) So now we continue to seek comfort in dealing with our personal loss. No you are not alone. The family and friends will rally around you. But may we also remember that God will also be there for. Yes the scriptures reveal God as a God of tender mercy and comfort.(2 Corinthians 1:3-4) Did you know that every tear that falls from our eyes God knows about. It is as if He has collected the tears and preserved them in a bottle for special consideration.(Psalms 56:8) What would be the occasion? That He would use His great powers to restore life back to those who have died. This is really a promise from God that is recorded at John 5:28-29. Yes God will cause a calling to go forth to those in the grave to stand up in life again. Yes what a wonderful time period this will prove to be. So can you envision Sheryl and others standing up in life again? Do you see yourselves being reunited back with your family members and friends who have died. If you are not sure as to how you should answer this question, you are certainly not alone. After all you have been seeing your loved ones die right before your very eyes. So to help all to have strong faith in this promise, God has taken the time to preserve nine accounts in the Bible that speaks about the resurrection blessing that is near at hand. When we take the time to read such accounts, they provide true comfort to our grieving hearts. Here is just one such example that God wants us to know about. It is recorded at Acts 9:36-42. I hope that all will be able to see how these verses apply to yourselves and to your departed loved ones. So may all please continue to draw tender mercy from God. May all keep this promise about the resurrection hope before you at all times. Remember that it is impossible for God to lie.(Titus 1:2)

“ Kendall and Curt and family. Besides being my postal coworker and class of '74 school mate, Sheryl was my good friend. Since our birthdays were only 5 days apart, we celebrated every year for the last 10+ years. I am so blessed to have many good and happy memories of her. Man!, we had so much fun as classmates and coworkers. I was honored to be one of her bridesmaids when she married you Curt. I loved her too and will miss her so much also. "Fly High McAdams!!"
