“ I work for Bishop Sullivan Center and had the pleasure of getting to know over the last few years. Steven always brightened my day with a smile and gratitude for whatever he was given in life. On a sunny day, he would sit on our parking lot with his face towards the sun and just smile.

I know life was challenging for Steven, but he made friends wherever he went. We will miss him, but are so glad that he no longer has to be on the street. We wish him well on the next phase of his journey--Steven taught us all so much.

“ I will always remember the love Steven showed my sister and my niece, and the moments I had the privilege of witnessing. Playing Barbies with Aniya, escorting her to daddy-daughter dances, making her breakfast fit for a queen before school, and the three of them hanging out enjoying good times together, these were the moments that truly mattered. When Steven was good he was truly great. I choose to remember the best of him - the good, the love, and the joy he brought into their lives.

Continued prayers for the family to find comfort and healing in God's presence.
