“ My wife and I met Tommy when we were selling out at Nate’s swap and shop. He was always very friendly to us and always smiling. We had the honor of visiting him and his wife at their home on a few occasions. He was one of the best people if ever known. My wife and I will miss him very much.

Sending love and prayers to my Aunt Josephine, cousins Freda, Tommy, Yolanda and Rosalyne. Uncle Tommy was always taking care of his older sisters. We know that they are all together now. He will be missed but I will always remember how he loved all of his family! Nieces and nephews, grands and great grands. May Uncle Tommy rest in perfect peace!
