Obituary

Trinity My'kel Parrish (Our Little Princess) July 31, 2015 – November 20, 2018 was born to Bishop Keion and TaNisha Parrish. Trinity will be greatly missed by her only sibling and very best friend, her big brother Tayden M.

Parrish. Grandparents, Evangelist Margo L. Haywood-Newsome (Bryant), Tammy Parrish, Charles Thomas (Stephanie preceded her in death) Lester Coppage; Great Grandparents, Lottie Jones, Helen M. Patterson (Lee) She is preceded in death: Beverly J. Williams-Haywood, Hosea L. Haywood Jr. and Charles E. Thomas Sr.) John Hardy. Trinity's love is imprinted in the hearts of an entire village. We will hold so many loving memories in our hearts forever of Trinity's infectious smile, silly way's and sweet voice. Aunt: (TT) Tiffany Haywood (Troy) cousin TahJa'e Uncle: Eddie Flakes (Charion) cousin's Malachi and Judah. Trinity leaves a host of other Aunts, Uncles, Cousins, Godparents, God-Sisters and Brothers. God Grandmothers and many people that loved her. Trinity's infectious smile and loving heart will truly be missed. Trinity attended the Potter's House Family Child Care under the leadership of LaTrice Irving where she will be missed by her entire school. Trinity attended Harvest Baptist Church of Blue Springs, Mo., and she attended Englewood Assembly of God on Wednesday's for Bible Study with her dad. Trinity was/is and will forever remain her mommy's baby; TaNisha would baby her although "Trin Trin" as her mom calls her was so independent would resist it. TaNisha "ALWAYS" referred to Trinity as "MY BABY." "Trin

Trin” will forever be her Mimi’s mini me. She was her Grandma Margo’s baby although Mimi said she was not messing with Trinity when she was born. Mimi looked at Trinity one time and fell in love with her. That’s the affect Trinity had on everyone. Trinity was/is and will always be a daddy’s girl; there was no greater hero in her eyes. Second in line was Trinity’s B-Pa, Bryant Newsome, there was and is no greater love between a Grandpa and his Princess. “The Princess” WILL be missed so much by her B-Pa. Trinity was very close to her Uncle Eddie, Aunt Charion and Cousin Malachi/Judah, whom she would call Calachi, she would get so excited to know that they were going to play together. Trinity loved her big brother Tayden so much. Tayden and Trinity had a remarkable bond; Tayden was so protective of his sister and always prayed over her. Trinity loved going to her Granny’s house every other weekend. That meant party time; they would go to all the best playgrounds and water parks. Granny loved cooking shrimp and crab legs for her beautiful baby girl and shopping for the cutest girlie trends. Trinity had a special bond with her TT Tiffany; they had that girlie-girl thing going on. The lip-gloss, glam girl was all in the makings with her TT Tiffany. When she was with Tiffany, her most memorable moments was, “I’m so excited TT” that will never be forgotten. Trinity shared an angelic connection with her big cousin Tahja’e. Trinity would come into the presence of Tahj and it was like a “ying and yang” thing. Tahja’e would be calm to Trinity’s storm, even in her last days; Tahj would go to the hospital and speak to Trinity while in the coma and Trinity’s vitals would all change when Tahj would talk to Trin. Trinity would move her hands and mouth when Tahj would come into her presence. One Angel always recognizes another. Trinity loved playing in the park, coloring, swimming and going to spray parks in the summer. Trinity has always been surrounded by family activities. Trinity loved watching videos and calling family members on the video chat as well as talking on the phone, especially to her Mimi. Trinity loved attending family functions and kid-friendly events. Her parents kept her and her brother on the go. Trinity loved attending her brother’s basketball practices and sitting on the side-line yelling as Tayden’s cheerleader. Trinity loved running long distance with her Mimi Margo. Trinity's favorite things to do are sing, dance and eat snacks. I am certain Trinity is in heaven singing, dancing and eating a snack right now. Sing on little Angel, Sing on.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Faith consists in believing when it is beyond the power of reason to believe. You have to believe that Precious Trinity was here for a reason and your connection could never be broken. Extending deepest sympathy, for you & your family at this time of sorrow. And hoping, too, that comfort and peace may come to you all. Heaven is a place nearby, so there's no need to say goodbye. Hold on to your memories, and let them guide you during this time of sadness. Be blessed. 🌸

“ I am at an unspeakable loss of words. Sweet baby girl. I am so very sorry, and cannot imagine what you all are going through right now. She was the cutest, funniest little sister walking in so grown up to drop her big brother off at preschool. Words cannot describe my sincere apologies for your loss. I am keeping you all in my heart, prayers, and thoughts. Please give Tayden a BIG hug from Mrs. Molly.
