TRIBUTE TO A DEAR SISTER VERONICA NWAKIFE OKOLO NEE EGWUONWU.

The illness of Veronica's death blew to us on Tuesday 23th January 2024.

Veronica as She was popularly called was born into the family of Late Mr Hypolite Paul Egwuonwu of Umuebo, Agbaja Abatete in Idemili Local government area of Anambra State in 1948. She was the 7th of the Eighth children.

Born into a literate family, she started school at an early age and received a very sound education from notable institutions at home and abroad namely, QRC Onitsha, UNN Nsukka, UNIBEN Benin, and University of Grenoble France.

A first class brain, she majored in French and finally bagged a masters degree in that subject. Vero was endowed by God with natural beauty which everyone admired. She loved to be called by various pet names such as Vero, Vera and Thecla; a name she chose for her confirmation ceremony. To sum it up, Veronica was a seasoned teacher, and ardent Catholic, God-fearing, modest and gentle, a faithful wife and a loving sister. May her soul rest in peace. Amen.
