“ To the French Family: We take this time to express our personal condolences to the family of Victoria L French. Our thoughts and prayers go out to the family and friends during this time of great sadness. Yes, now is the time to be on the receiving end of getting much love and support from the many family members and friends. I know that all will be there for you in a very special way. We must also remember that God will also be there for us. No, there is no better source of comforting than what God can provide for us. (2 Corinthians 1:3-4) God's comfort comes from the pages of the Bible. He wants all to have a clear understanding as to what His comfort means. Take for an example this loving promise from God in the Bible. The promise is recorded at John 5:28-29. In these verses, God tells us that in the days to come, that He would use His powers to restore life back to those who have fallen asleep in death. True comfort from these verses comes when we understand that God is giving us His personal guarantee that persons like Victoria, and a great host of others would have their lives restored back to them. That persons like Victoria would soon be reunited back with her many family members and friends who love and miss her dearly. This is no mere empty promise. It is a promise from God that life would certainly be restored. So, to help all to develop strong faith in this future blessing, God has preserved nine accounts in the Bible that speaks about this grand blessing. Here is just one such example that is recorded at Acts 9:36-42. I hope that all will get a chance to see how these verses apply to your loved ones in a very special way. In closing we encourage all to please keep this promise of God near your hearts at all times. Remember that when God makes a promise, it becomes reality. For it is impossible for God to lie. (Titus 1:2)
