“ Ms. Black aka Ms. "B", There's a special place in all our hearts for our mothers, just like there's a special place in every mother's heart for her children. I will never forget the love and guidance you gave me from a young age. You were an amazing Godmother! Our bond has brought our families together and given them delightful memories that have lasted a lifetime. Since I relocated to Arizona, the distance didn't erase the love. I could still call you and talk to you as if nothing changed. Distance didn't matter. Time didn't matter. We'd still end each conversation with "I love you and talk to you soon". After our last chat I knew it would probably be the last, but I really hoped it wouldn't be. Now I just wish I was there, in your presence, one last time. It breaks my heart that I'm not there, but circumstances on life tend to happen. If you were here right now, you'd tell me "do what you can and don't worry about the rest". That's why I'll never forget you and that's what I love about you. You always told me what I needed to hear, and not what I wanted to hear. I just want to say I love you with all my heart. My family and I will never forget you and I will truly miss you! Love, Diane

“ May your family find comfort as “the hearer of prayer” embraces their heart (Psalms 94:19). Lean on one another for strength and encouragement to stay strong. We hope that the many cards, hugs, kind words, cherished memories, and loving prayers sustains your family during this most difficult time.
