“ I worked with virginia for several years in court administration. She was a lovely and caring person. She worked faithfully for her church and loved her family. She was active with the sparkling rubies and took pictures so that the red hat community knows we existed. It was my privilege to have known miss virginia. My deepest sympathy to her family.

“ To Adrain and family:We extend our deepest sympathy for your loss of a beautiful soul. Although Virginia was our neighbor, she was like family to us and we will definitely miss her. Virginia was dedicated to the neighborhood association for many years and inspirational for many of the neighborhood accomplishments. May God continue to bless the family.Robert and Demetria Cobin
