“ Ricky and Chandra,My condolences to you in the loss of your Father. I can remember riding to school with you and Mr Graves driving. He was always so kind to us. It is hard to lose a Dad so may God enfold your in His arms and give you peace and comfort .

“ To the family of Mr. Wayne E. Graves The Kynard family was deeply saddened after hearing of Mr. Graves death. He was a kind, and friendly neighbor on Lawn Avenue and Sheraton Estates for many decades. He spoke to my parents Joyce and Ben Kynard, 5219 Lawn every day as he walked Scout up and down the block. He always showed great concern for them and their health and would ask about them often. Mr. Graves attended Paseo Baptist church regularly with his daughter Chandra for several years. It was always a delight to see them both. Mr Graves will be missed and fondly remembered. May Chandra, Wayne R Graves, and family hold close to their hearts the following scriptures. 2 Corinthians 5:8 KJV8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. Moreover, Romans 8:35-39 NIV35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? 36 As it is written: For your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered." 37 No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. 38 For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, 39 neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord. God bless and comfort the Graves family Brett and Joyce Kynard, and Carmen Kynard Krasick

“ I met Mr. Graves later in his life. Because Cecil and I are both August babies, I got to join the Graves family when they celebrated in town at Kevin & Kims lovely home. Mr. Graves was gracious and he would say funny things. His family doted on him and I know it added years to his long life.

“ *Mr Graves was a very nice man to myself & my husband. Very welcoming & gracious. He always would entertain you in his home with the offer of a Highball or drink of some nature! When he would visit our home for dinners & family visiting time he would always bring something to gift or share. Truly a proper gentleman. I hope that he and Mrs Graves are once again together dressing up for a evening of socializing & having a Highball or two together again! Peace & comfort to the family & friends of Mr Graves.
