

William Moore

July 24, 1973 - August 2, 2021

Obituary

On July 24, 1973, William Ronell Moore (Dirty Bill) was born from Margaret Ann Moore, mother, and William Ronell Hearron, father.

William grew up in both the catholic and public schools and received his G.E.D. He received Christ and was baptized in 1982 at Metropolitan Missionary Baptist Church.

As time passed, he would marry once to Alisha Waynick, to have four children.

From time to time, William went from many jobs, McDonalds's, Tyson's Food, Hotels, Rental Companies, to Carpentry. He found his love for driving over the road trucks after getting his CDL License which led to driving the Greyhound Bus and for the Kansas City School District with First Students, Apple, Inc. and Premier School Bus Companies.

There was nothing William R. Moore wouldn't try to do for his family, whether it be giving the best foot rubs before the kids went to bed or teatime during the day. He had a passion for fishing, bar-be-queuing, riding motorcycles, shooting guns, fixing cars and electronic gadgets.

William's heart was big as gold for he did all he could do thru all the pain, medication, the sickness. His body couldn't take it anymore, but he didn't want to be alone. He made it back to the house so that he could see the family one last time. On the last hour of August 1, 2021, the light got brighter, and the darkness got smaller, and the Lord said to William, come home.

William was preceded in death by his father, William Ronell Hearron (Fish), nephew, Derrick Miller, niece, ME Kayla Rolf, uncle, Thomas H. Peters.

William leaves to cherish his memory: mother, Margaret Ann Moore of Kansas City, Missouri; sons, William Ronell Moore, Jr. of Blue Springs, Missouri, Tayshawn Davon Moore of Kansas City, Missouri, Charlie Slezak of Kansas City, Kansas; daughters, Gabriella Nichole Moore, Natasha Rachelle Moore both of Blue Springs, Missouri; brothers, Milton Moore of Georgia, Ronald Hearron, Ronell Hearron both of Kansas City, Missouri; sisters, Alainer Moore, Lolita Moore, Jerrine Hearron Evans, Faye Hearron all of Kansas City, Missouri, Ella Hearron of Kansas City, Kansas; a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.
